“our story”

Since being founded in 1938 by local upholsterer Harold Hutchings, the ethos of quality, creativity and craftsmanship has remained at the forefront of the Duresta business.

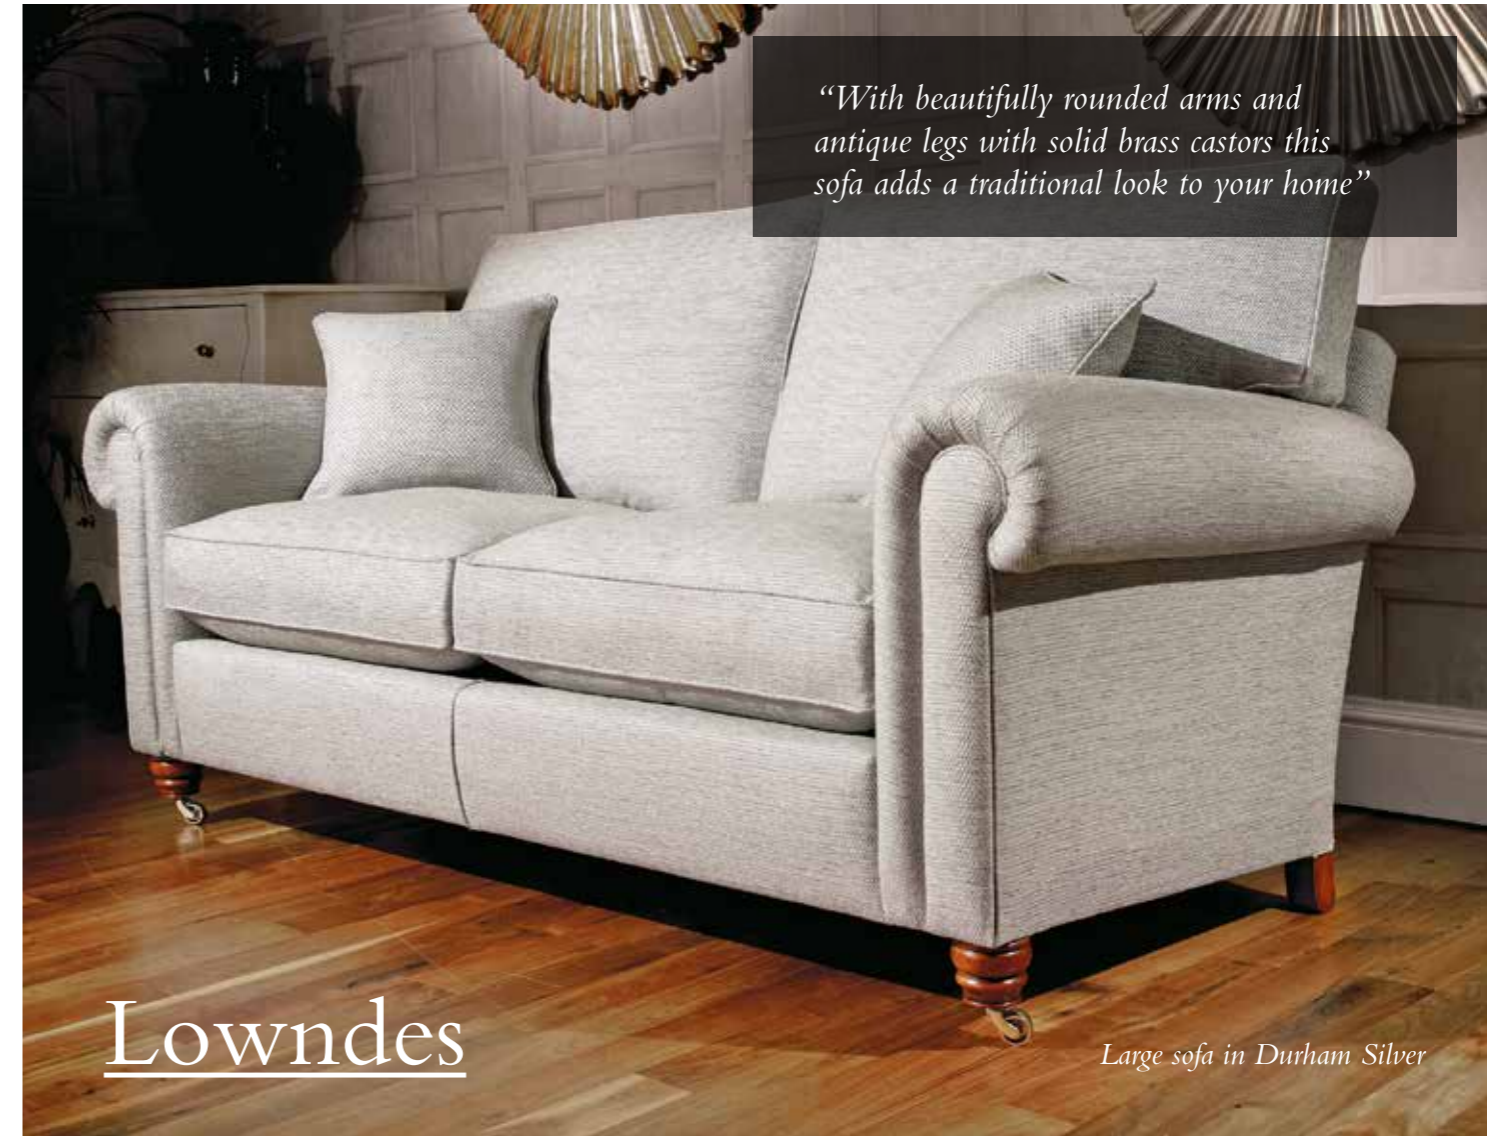

From humble beginnings, Duresta has established a strong reputation for making the finest upholstery. To this day, every piece of Duresta furniture is handmade by the craftsmen and women in our workshops in Long Eaton, Nottinghamshire.

Throughout our long history, the designs of Duresta furniture have changed and evolved with the style of the times. We have mastered and refined the traditional methods of furniture making from the hand cutting of the fabrics, to the unprecedented pattern matching and the joinery used in making solid hardwood frames, all of which our reputation was built upon.

Duresta are proud to have created an exclusive collection for John Lewis. Together, we have carefully selected sofas and chairs to suit any lifestyle and look, teamed with a stylish range of fabrics allowing you to create that perfect piece of furniture to suit your home.
