Our Story

1869

Bracklyn Street

In 1869 Frederick Parker created the business that was to become Parker Knoll from his father's factory in Bracklyn Street, London. He took pride in designing and developing the finest furniture using the best of British craftsmanship and, with the help of his sons, developed the business.

1921

Revolutionary Ideas

In 1921 the Parker's met Willi Knoll; a German fighter pilot. His revolutionary ideas to modernize comfort transformed the business. The coiled wire spring system, developed to redefine comfort, remains unchanged in many of our chairs today.

1969

The Statesman

With its deep buttoned back and swivel pedestal base, the Statesman Chair was an instant hit during the 60s and 70s, quickly becoming a best seller and a modern status symbol.

1996

1914

The War Effort

As demand continued to grow the Parker's began manufacturing furniture for Victorian gentry, which later led to furnishing the Palladian lounge of RMS Aquitania during the first world war.

1936

Furnishing the BBC

In the 1930s Parker Knoll chairs were chosen to furnish most of the rooms and studios at the new BBC headquarters broadcasting house at Portland Place. In 1936 King Edward VIII announced his abdication from the throne at the BBC, he was sitting in a Parker Knoll chair.

1960

The Swinging 60s

For Parker Knoll the late 1960s were very definitive. The development of motion furniture began alongside iconic designs such as the Merrywood Collection and The Norton Group.
